

ACPA 2021 VIRTUAL CONFERENCE

Saturday April 17th, 10 AM- 6 PM EST

MEET THE SPEAKERS:

TOPIC: "FIRE-SIDE CHAT"- COVID 19 PANDEMIC AND REINVESTING IN AFRICA'S HEALTH SECTOR.....

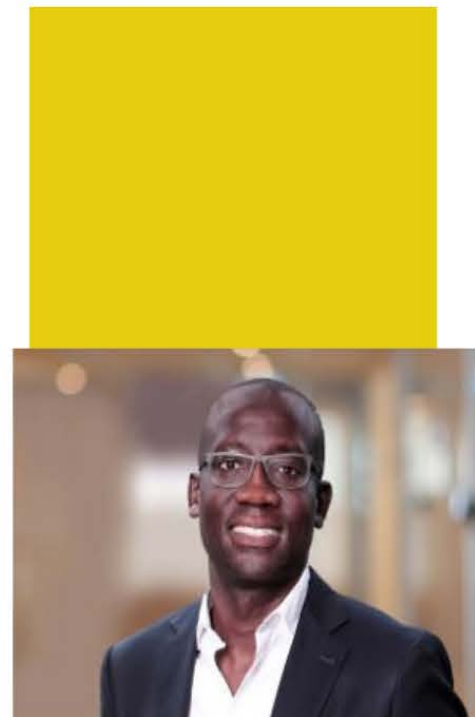

Acha Leke is a Senior Partner in McKinsey's Johannesburg office, Chairman of McKinsey's Africa practice, and a member of McKinsey's Shareholders Council – its global governance board, based in Johannesburg.

He leads the Firm's Transformation and Private Equity Practices in Africa and is a member of the McKinsey Global Institute (MGI) Council. Until December 2018, he led the Firm's Public and Social Sector Practice in Africa and was also the Senior Partner in charge of Global Recruiting for McKinsey worldwide

He serves governments, multinational, investors, and private sector institutions on issues of economic development, growth strategies, holistic transformations, and investment decisions and has worked across over 20 African countries to date.

He is a Co-Founder of the Global Advisory Council of the African Leadership Academy and of the African Leadership Network, and was also a member of the World Economic Forum's Global Agenda Council on Africa.

He received a Ph.D. in Electrical Engineering, an M.S. in Electrical Engineering and an M.S. in Industrial Engineering and Engineering Management all from Stanford University, as well as a Bachelor of Electrical Engineering summa cum laude, with a minor in Economics, from the Georgia Institute of Technology where he graduated as Valedictorian (first Black Valedictorian in the School's history)) and was elected to Tau Beta Pi and Eta Kappa Nu

Dr. Acha Leke
McKinsey Africa